S. 1967

A bill to make technical corrections to the status of certain land held in trust for the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians, to take certain land into trust for that band, and for other purposes

As ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs on May 3, 2000

S. 1967 would allow certain land owned by the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians to be held by the federal government in trust for the benefit of the band. CBO estimates that enacting this bill would have no significant impact on the federal budget. S. 1967 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would have no significant impact on the budgets of state, local or tribal governments.
